

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

Kings Church, Bangor

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

Kings Church is the data controller (contact details below). This means we decide how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

Kings Church, Bangor complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the church;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at Kings Church;

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Processing is necessary for the legitimate interests of the Church (providing that the processing is not unwarranted by reason of prejudice to the rights and freedoms or legitimate interests of the data subject) so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about Church events.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church.

6. How long do we keep your personal data¹?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the Information Commissioner's office available to view online here. Access NI related data is kept for a limited time as outlined in our Access NI Secure Storage Policy [\[Link to policy\]](#).

Specifically, we retain personal data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and official registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently
